FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., Sept. 26, 2012 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- For the fifth consecutive year, Inc. Magazine has recognized Farmington Hills-based Kyyba as 500/5000 companies representing the Business and Products and Services Industry.

The award celebrates the hard work and dedication companies across Michigan have demonstrated in growing their businesses.

Kyyba companies have been in operation for more than fifteen years, specializing in staff augmentation, software development, and healthcare solutions. The company has multiple offices serving local, regional and national clients consisting of Fortune 500 and middle market companies. Kyyba's unique process allows employees to understand the needs of the business organizations and provide solutions that match the real and compelling needs of each organization.

"Despite economic challenges facing all companies in the marketplace, Kyyba has experienced a great amount of growth," said Kyyba President Tel Ganesan. "Due to the creation of jobs locally and nationwide, we are pleased to contribute to the workforce by matching employers with the qualified IT talent to support company growth."

Other recognitions Kyyba has received: the Corp! Magazine for "2012 Michigan's Economic Bright Spots award", which honors Michigan companies who are a driving force in our economy.
