Inc. Magazine Lists Kyyba Among 500/5000 for Sixth Consecutive Year

Recognition by Inc. Magazine celebrates entrepreneurs and the success of a fast-growing business

FARMINGTON HILLS, MI. – For the sixth consecutive year, Inc. Magazine has recognized Farmington Hills-based Kyyba as 500/5000 companies representing the Business and Products and Services Industry.

The award celebrates the hard work and dedication companies across Michigan have demonstrated in growing their businesses.

Kyyba companies have been in operation for more than fifteen years, specializing in staff augmentation and software development. “Receiving this award is a great sense of accomplishment and this is certainly an honor to be winning six years in a row through our combined companies,” said Kyyba President & CEO Tel Ganesan. The company has multiple offices serving local, regional and national clients consisting of Fortune 500 and middle market companies. Kyyba’s unique process allows employees to understand the needs of the business organizations and provide solutions that match the real and compelling needs of each organization.
