

April 13, 2015

Kyyba Kidz Foundation Hosts Book Drive Through May 29

Donations can be delivered to Kyyba's offices in Farmington Hills

Kyyba Kidz Foundation, an organization launched by Kyyba, Inc. and dedicated to improving the lives and education of orphans and underprivileged individuals by raising resources through community participation, is collecting new and gently used books for all reading levels through Fri., May 29.

Book donations can be delivered from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday to Kyyba's offices, 28230 Orchard Lake Road, Suite 130 in Farmington Hills. The books will go to two groups.

The first is Detroit Public Schools' Schulze Academy for Technology and The Arts. This June, volunteer tutors from the Foundation will visit the first grade students they work with at the school and give them the books to keep and read over the summer. The second, Pro-Literacy Detroit, an organization that provides GED and literacy tutoring services for young adults, will add the donations they receive to their library.

“Our mission is to promote the education and general welfare of those in our community through charitable activities and sponsorships,” said Tel Ganesan, president of the Kyyba Kidz

Foundation's Board of Trustees. "As we look ahead to summer, launching this drive was extremely important to our organization as it will allow us to provide books to children and young adults who may not otherwise have access to many reading materials, especially while school is out."

For more information, contact Michelle Kumm at 248-254-4012 or michellek@kyyba.com.

About Kyyba Kidz Foundation

Kyyba Kidz Foundation aims to promote the education and general welfare of those in the community through charitable activities and sponsorships. The organization also receives and administers funds to other domestic and international nonprofit organizations that are involved in the education, literacy and mentoring of orphans and underprivileged individuals. For more information, visit www.kyybakidzfoundation.org.