

FARMINGTON

News from the heart of our community

VOICE

April 18, 2015

Farmington Hills business hosts book drive for Detroit kids

Kyyba Kidz Foundation, an organization launched by Farmington Hills-based Kyyba, Inc. will collect new and gently used books for all reading levels through May 29.

Book donations can be delivered from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, to Kyyba's offices, 28230 Orchard Lake Rd., Suite 130. They'll be delivered to these locations:

- Detroit Public Schools' Schulze Academy for Technology and The Arts: This June, volunteer tutors from the Foundation will visit the first grade students they work with at the school and give them the books to keep and read over the summer.
- Pro-Literacy Detroit: This organization, which provides GED and literacy tutoring services for young adults, will add the donations they receive to their library.

"Our mission is to promote the education and general welfare of those in our community through charitable activities and sponsorships," said Tel Ganesan, president of the Kyyba Kidz Foundation's Board of Trustees. "As we look ahead to summer, launching this drive was extremely important to our organization as it will allow us to provide books to children and young adults who may not otherwise have access to many reading materials, especially while school is out."

For more information, contact Michelle Kumm at 248-254-4012 or michellek@kyyba.com.