

FARMINGTON

News from the heart of our community

VOICE

August 13, 2015

Farmington Hills firm among metro's best and brightest

Farmington Hills-based Kyyba, Inc., a global staffing firm, has been named one of Metropolitan Detroit's 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For.

According to a company press release, the award celebrates excellence in human resource practices and employee enrichment. Companies are judged based on a wide number of categories, including: recognition, diversity, employee education and more.

Serving industries such as automotive, education, technology and manufacturing, Kyyba was honored in the "50 or Less Employees" category. This marks the company's third consecutive appearance on the list.

"Receiving this award for the third year in a row is humbling. This honor not only lets us know that our employees value our human resources practices but it also inspires us to continue growing and developing as a workplace," said Kyyba President and CEO Tel Ganesan.

Kyyba received outstanding scores in employee education and development; recruitment, selection and orientation; employee achievement and recognition; diversity and inclusion; and community initiatives.

Winning companies will be celebrated at a gala on September 17 at the Detroit Marriot at the Renaissance Center and featured in an upcoming issue of Corp! magazine.